ANC's funding claim paranoid nonsense – Zille

'Ruling party funded by axis of evil'

CRAIG DODDS

HELEN Zille has rejected as "complete paranoid nonsense" a claim by the ANC that opposition party campaigns are being funded by foreign networks wanting to topple the governing party.

"The only people who are being funded by international networks are the ANC, by the axis of evil like Libya and North Korea and Cuba and various other places," Zille unilaterally," Zille said.

ANC treasurer Zweli Mkhize earlier this year floated the idea of a central fund to which private donors could contribute without the stigma of being seen to support a particular party. This money would then be distributed among the parties represented in Parliament.

But opposition parties have rejected this idea, saying if the money was divided in proportion to the parties' share of the vote, as is largely the case with
